United States Probation Officer

Place: Memphis, TN

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:

The Defendant Has Violated The Following Conditions Of His Supervised Release:

The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

Mr. Williams submitted urine screens which tested positive for Marijuana on February 24, and June 5, 2003, October 9, and November 18, 2004. Mr. Williams voluntarily admitted the use of Marijuana on July 17, 2003.

The defendant shall participate in drug treatment/testing as directed by Probation Officer.

During Supervised Release, Mr. Williams was required to participate in drug treatment and screening. Excluding a period of incarceration and a hospitalization, Mr. Williams failed to attend forty- four (44) counseling sessions and failed to submit to drug screening on thirty-seven (37) occasions. He was discharged from drug treatment on December 29, 2004, for failure to comply with drug treatment.

The defendant shall report to the Probation Officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five ((5) days of each month.

Mr. Williams failed to keep scheduled appointments on December 2, 2004, January 12 and March 4, 2005. Mr. Williams has failed to submit monthly report forms for the months of November and December 2004. He also failed to submit monthly report forms for January, February and March of 2005.

The defendant shall work regularly at lawful occupations unless excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training or other acceptable reasons.

To this date, Mr. Williams failed to secure employment. He has been unemployed since February 21, 2003.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

On April 15, 2004, Memphis Police Officers responded to a complaint of shots being fired at 999 Rayner. The victim, Anderson Fullilove, advised officers that his vehicle which was parked in front of 999 Rayner had been vandalized by Nicholas Williams. It is alleged that Mr. Williams walked up to the parked vehicle belonging to Mr. Fullilove, pulled a gun from his pocket and fired one shot breaking the rear windows. On May 13, 2004, a warrant was issued for Mr. Williams' arrest charging him with Vandalism $500 or Less. On May 16, 2004 the warrant was executed. On February 2, 2005 this matter was nolle prossessed in Division 10 of the Shelby County Criminal Court. On March 18, 2005, USPO Brown spoke with the victim, Anderson Fullilove, who advised that he witnessed Mr. Williams in possession of a firearm which he discharged thus vandalizing his vehicle.

The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device of any other dangerous weapon.
